

God's Character

"Are we able to comprehend His perfections? The answers to those questions are found in the Word of God. The Bible does not answer the question, what is God? God has revealed Himself to us through His attributes. An attribute of God is simply anything that is true about Him. We are left to God's revealing anything about Himself before we can know it. If God does not reveal we cannot find. The deepest thought a person can ever have is his conception of God's character."

-Dan DeHaan, The God You Can Know
